● ABOUT ME

I have always appreciated the sociocultural assets, and the attributes of transparency and dynamism in teaching. My genuine curiosity about life in general, colourful teaching background in specific, and cross- cultural experiences I have been making during two immigration phases, all provide me with an innovative teaching methodology which is based on cultural awareness and caters to diverse learning styles. This, as a result, equips me with the two assets of patience and spontaneity in terms of strategically fitting my lesson plans to learners' immediate needs. u can provide a description of yourself here...
